

The Ivy and the Holly

Kate Rusby

Arranged by Helen Vincent-Tibke

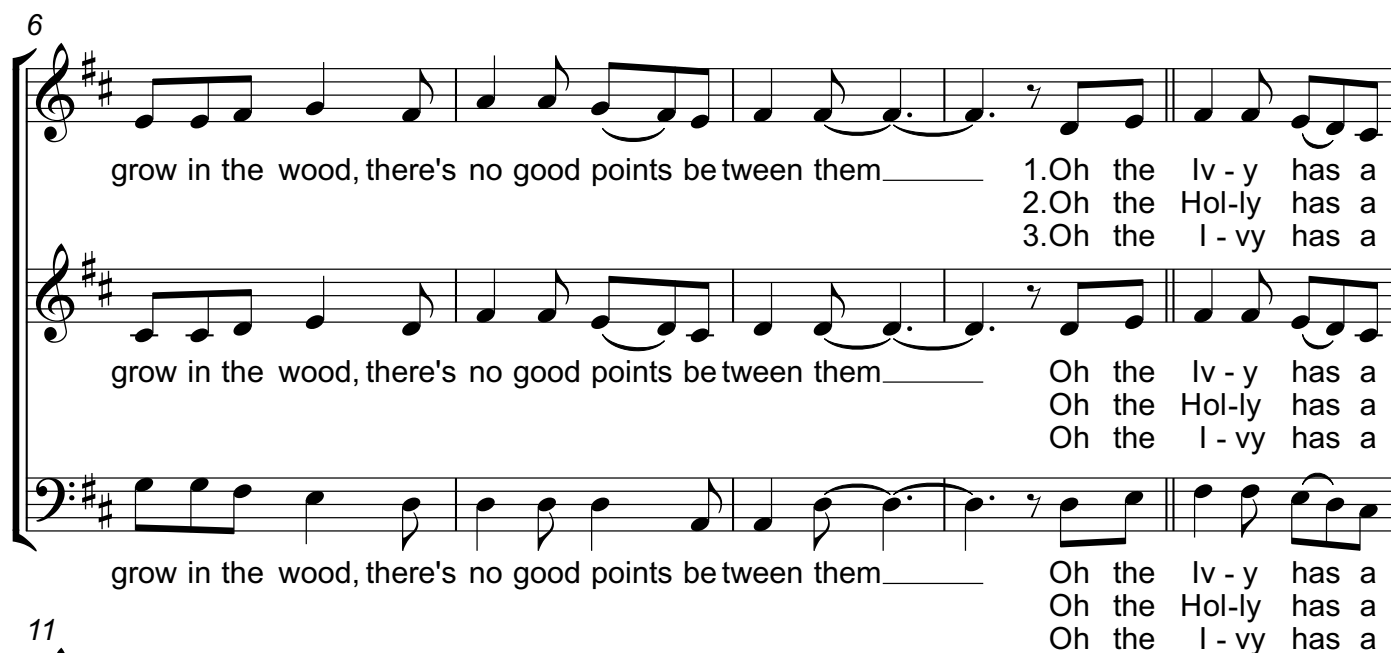

Oh the i - vy and the hol - ly, — you'd know if you had seen them Of all the trees that

Oh the i - vy and the hol - ly, — you'd know if you had seen them Of all the trees that

Oh the i - vy and the hol - ly, — you'd know if you had seen them Of all the trees that

6

grow in the wood, there's no good points between them — 1. Oh the Iv - y has a
2. Oh the Hol - ly has a
3. Oh the I - vy has a

grow in the wood, there's no good points between them — Oh the Iv - y has a
Oh the Hol - ly has a
Oh the I - vy has a

grow in the wood, there's no good points between them — Oh the Iv - y has a
Oh the Hol - ly has a
Oh the I - vy has a

11

ber - ry — as black as a - ny sin — It's not much use in stalk — as green as a - ny veg — If you chop it up in poi - son — that makes you itch like hell — If you boil it up in

ber - ry — as black as a - ny sin — It's not much use in stalk — as green as a - ny veg — If you chop it up in
poi - son — that makes you itch like hell — If you boil it up in

ber - ry — as black as a - ny sin — It's not much use in
stalk — as green as a - ny veg — If you chop it up in
poi - son — that makes you itch like hell — If you boil it up in jams or pies and hor - ri - ble in gin Oh the sa - lad it will set your teeth on edge stews it will make you sick as well

4. Oh the Holly has a root, beneath the earth it rots
 And if you suck it, slowly it will bring you out in spots

Chorus

5. Oh the Ivy has a leaf, sometimes it's variegated, Sometimes it's not, that goes to show how things get complicated

Chorus

6. Oh the Ivy and the Holly, when thwy are both full grown,
 The Ivy needs the Holly, for it can't stand up alone.

7. Oh the Holly has a flower, it's hardly worth a mention,
 And I don't see why these two trees should get all this attention,
 And I don't see why these two trees should get all this attention

Soprano

The Ivy and the Holly

Kate Rusby

Arranged by Helen Vincent-Tibke

6

1. Oh the
2. Oh the
3. Oh the

10

14

Alto

The Ivy and the Holly

Kate Rusby

Arranged by Helen Vincent-Tibke

Oh the i-vy and the hol-ly, you'd know if you had seen them Of all the trees that

6

grow in the wood, there's no good points be-tween them Oh the Oh the
Oh the

10

Iv-y has a ber-ry as black as a-ny sin It's Hol-ly has a stalk as green as a-ny veg If you
I-vy has a poi-son that makes you itch like hell If you

14

not much use in jams or pies and hor-ri-ble in gin Oh the chop it up in sa-lad it will set your teeth on edge boil it up in stews it will make you sick as well

Bass

The Ivy and the Holly

Kate Rusby

Arranged by Helen Vincent-Tibke

Oh the i - vy and the hol - ly, you'd know if you had seen them Of all the trees that

6

grow in the wood, there's no good points be - tween them

Oh the
Oh the
Oh the

10

Iv - y has a ber - ry as black as a - ny sin It's Hol - ly has a stalk as green as a - ny veg If you
I - vy has a poi - son that makes you itch like hell If you

14

not much use in jams or pies and hor - ri - ble in gin Oh the
chop it up in sa - lad it will set your teeth on edge
boil it up in stews it will make you sick as well

4. Oh the Holly has a root, beneath the earth it rots
And if you suck it, slowly it will bring you out in spots

Chorus

5. Oh the Ivy has a leaf, sometimes it's variegated,
Sometimes it's not, that goes to show how things get complicated

Chorus

6. Oh the Ivy and the Holly, when thwy are both full grown,
The Ivy needs the Holly, for it can't stand up alone.

7. Oh the Holly has a flower, it's hardly worth a mention,
And I don't see why these two trees should get all this attention,
And I don't see why these two trees should get all this attention